MEDIA POLICIES

The Gary SouthShore RailCats Media Relations Department is responsible for addressing all media inquiries and facilitating media access to information including interview requests, authorizing credentials, and ensuring a professional work environment for all media representatives visiting U.S. Steel Yard.

Credentials

The Gary SouthShore RailCats offer both full-season and single-game credentials for covering the team during the 2019 season. All credential requests must be made at least 24 hours in advance of a game that would be covered. Credentialed media will be admitted to the field prior to the game and will receive food and beverage. The RailCats reserve the right to refuse or revoke credentials at any time.

Press Box

The press box is located on the suite level directly behind home plate. It is open four hours before each scheduled game and will close 60 minutes after the conclusion of the game. Updated rosters, lineups, statistics, game notes, and press releases will be made available prior to each game. There are no assigned seats in the working area of the press box aside from the scoreboard operator and official scorer positions.

A secure wireless internet and phone access will be available to all media members working in the press box. The U.S. Steel Yard press box is a working environment, and, as such, there is to be absolutely no cheering or profanity at any time. Any such behavior will result in immediate revocation of credential privileges. The Gary SouthShore RailCats promote a family-friendly atmosphere but do ask those in attendance to be mindful that the press box is a professional working area and should be treated as such at all times.

Seeking autographs from RailCats personnel or other celebrities while possessing a RailCats Media Credential is prohibited and strictly enforced. The consumption of alcohol is also strictly prohibited while in possession of a RailCats Media Credential.

Interview Requests

All interview requests for players, coaches, and front office members must be made 24 hours in advance. Players and coaches will be made available for interviews prior to and after each game. No day of game requests for pre-game interviews will be honored.

Players and coaches are subject to availability upon request to the Gary SouthShore RailCats media relations staff. All interview requests can be made through Director of Broadcasting and Media Ryan Zimmerman via email, phone, or in person.

Still Photographers and Videographers

Still photographers have access to photography throughout the stadium, provided it does not interfere with the game or a fan's view. Camera wells located at the far ends of the first and third base dugouts can be utilized by still photographers during game action.

Videographers are allowed to set up for shooting behind home plate on the main course or within the camera wells in each dugout. There is absolutely no photography or recording of video inside the team clubhouses.

PAT AND LINDY SALVI

OWNERS | 16TH SEASON | CHICAGO, IL

Pat Salvi's Alma Maters:

B.A., Cum Laude, St. Mary's University of Minnesota

J.D., University of Notre Dame Law School

Doctor of Laws, Honoris Causa: St. Mary's University of Minnesota

Lindy Salvi's Alma Mater:

B.S., St. Mary's College (Ind.)

Pat and Lindy Salvi purchased a 100% stake in the Gary SouthShore RailCats in April 2008.

A lifetime baseball fan, Mr. Salvi decided to enter the minor league baseball industry and purchased his first team, the Gary SouthShore RailCats, in 2008. After finding much success with the RailCats, including playoff births in each of his first three seasons and an American Association Championship in 2013, Mr. Salvi expanded his enterprise to include a 100% stake in the Schaumburg Boomers of the Frontier League. Under Mr. Salvi's leadership and direction, the mission of Saliv Sports is to combine family, fun, and baseball to provide an exceptional level of affordable family entertainment in a safe and enjoyable atmosphere. This will be the team's 12th season in the American Association of Professional Baseball and 21st season overall.

Pat Salvi is the managing equity partner of the prominent Chicago personal injury law firm Salvi, Schostok & Pritchard, P.C. He attended Saint Mary's University in Winona, Minnesota where he received his Bachelor of Arts degree. He then received his Juris Doctorate from the University of Notre Dame. He has published numerous articles in law journals, lectured at legal seminars, and taught classes at universities such as Northwestern, Harvard, and Notre Dame.

One of the most prominent attorneys in the country, Pat Salvi is consistently recognized on the "Best Lawyers in America," "Illinois Super Lawyers," and "Leading Lawyers" lists. Mr. Salvi's peers have selected him to the Illinois Super Lawyers Top 10 List every year since 2014, and Leading Lawyers Magazine named Mr. Salvi to three "Top Ten" lists every year since 2016. In 2017, Mr. Salvi served as lead counsel on a trial team that obtained an Illinois record $148 million jury verdict.

Salvi, Schostok & Pritchard, P.C. represents victims in personal injury, medical malpractice, and wrongful death cases.

Lindy Salvi graduated from St. Mary's College in South Bend with a nursing degree and met Pat while there. Along with raising their five sons, Lindy became an active community volunteer. She has been involved as a member, committee chairperson, board member, and chairperson with School of Saint Mary's in Lake Forest, Junior League of Evanston-Northshore, Carmel Catholic High School, Misericordia Heart of Mercy Homes, Patrick's Church in Lake Forest, and Holy Name Cathedral in Chicago.

Currently, Lindy Salvi has a practice teaching AntiGravity Fitness.

The Salvi family is excited and thrilled to be a part of the Northwest Indiana community and to lead the RailCats to yet another championship season. Go RailCats!

BRYAN LYTER

PRESIDENT, SALVI SPORTS | 4TH SEASON | MERRILLVILLE, IN

Bryan Lyter's Alma Mater:
B.A., West Virginia University

Brian Lyter enters his fourth season as President of Salvi Sports, overseeing operations of all Salvi Sports franchises. He spent the 2015-2018 seasons as the RailCats General Manager. He spent the 2014 season as the RailCats Assistant General Manager and 2013 as the Director of Sales. 2022 will be Brian's 14th season in minor league baseball.

Prior to joining the RailCats Brian spent the previous four seasons with the Arkansas Travelers, the Double-A affiliate of the Los Angeles Angels. He started out in 2009 as a stadium operation intern and became the Director of Stadium Operations in 2010. He then worked as an Account Executive and Merchandise Manager in 2011, and was the Director of Food and Beverage for the 2012 season.

Brian, originally from Allegany, New York, graduated from West Virginia University with a Bachelor's degree in Sports Management, and minors in Business Administration and History. He is an avid Buffalo Bills, West Virginia Mountaineers, and New York Yankee fan. Brian, his wife, Laura, and daughter Annalee reside in Merrillville.

GENERAL MANAGER | 3RD SEASON | MERRILLVILLE, IN

Email: agiammanco@railcatsbaseball.com

Anthony Giammanco's Alma Mater: B.S., Concordia University Chicago

Anthony Giammanco is the current General Manager at the Gary SouthShore RailCats. This is his third season at the position. Before coming to Gary, he previously worked with the Frontier League's Schaumburg Boomers, where he had been working since 2017. He started in Schaumburg as their Box Office Manager and got promoted to Assistant General Manager after the conclusion of the 2019 season. Giammanco studied at Concordia University Chicago, where he received a Bachelor's Degree in Sports Management with Minors in Marketing and Business Communication.

NOAH SIMMONS

ASSISTANT GENERAL MANAGER AND HEAD GROUNDSKEEPER | 12TH SEASON | PORTAGE, IN

Email: nsimmons@railcatsbaseball.com

Noah Simmons' Alma Mater: Portage High School

Noah Simmons enters his 12th season with the RailCats as Assistant General Manager/Head Groundskeeper. Simmons is charged with the full time, and important, task of maintaining the RailCats home playing surface year-round.

Simmons started in Schaumburg when he was 12 years old and worked there for two years before making his way back to Gary to work for the RailCats, where he has been since. The rumors that Simmons was born at the Steel Yard are actually false, but he has been a part of the operation for so long that it might seem that way.

In addition to keeping the Steel Yard in tip top shape, Simmons also oversees facilities and operations of the Steel Yard for the RailCats. He is 2015 graduate of Portage High School and makes his home in Portage. In his spare time, Simmons enjoys traveling and playing with his dog, Champ.

MANAGER | LAMARR ROGERS

LAMARR ROGERS

MANAGER | 2ND SEASON | LOS ANGELES, CA

1

Date of Birth: June 24, 1971

Managerial Experience: 4th Season

Last Team: Tri-City ValleyCats (HOU, A-)

College: Long Beach State University

Lamarr Rogers enters his second season as the manager of the Gary SouthShore RailCats and his 18th coaching professional baseball.

During his first season in 2022, he led the RailCats to their best record in four years and developed four American Association All-Stars in Jack Eisenberger, Harrison Francis, Nick Garcia, and Daniel Lingua, the last of which also taking home the league's Rookie Position Player of the Year Award.

Rogers began his managerial career in 2015 with the Houston Astros organization when he took over the Greenville Astros, the team's rookie league affiliate. In addition to guiding them to the Appalachian League Championship that season, he also took home the league's Co-Manager of the Year Award. Rogers managed the following season with the Tri-City ValleyCats, the organization's short-season affiliate.

Prior to joining the Astros organization, Rogers spent 14 seasons split between the Northern League and American Association with the St. Paul Saints. There, he held various roles including assistant coach, hitting coach, first base coach, and third base coach. In 2004, the Saints batted .285 as a team en route to the Northern League Championship.

The Colorado Rockies drafted Rogers in the 42nd round of the 1992 Major League Baseball Draft after a three-year collegiate career at Long Beach State University. He played four seasons in the Rockies organization, advancing as high as Double-A, before getting selected in by the Detroit Tigers in the 1995 Rule 5 Draft. He then spent two seasons with the St. Paul Saints in 1997 and 1998 before finishing his career with a Major League Spring Training stint with the Arizona Diamondbacks.

RAMON ORTIZ

HITTING COACH | 1ST SEASON | CARACAS, VZ

35

Date of Birth: September 28, 1952

Coaching Experience: 31st Season

Last Team: Springfield Cardinals (STL, AA)

Ramon Ortiz serves as the Hitting Coach for the Gary SouthShore RailCats, his first season both with the team and the American Association.

Ortiz began his coaching career in 1983 as he joined the staff at Central University of Venezuela. After three seasons in his home country, he made the jump to the affiliated ranks in 1987 with the St. Louis Cardinals, where he would spend five years as a roving instructor including a stint with their Rookie League affiliate Johnson City Cardinals in 1989. From there, he worked for the Savannah Cardinals, their Single-A affiliate, from 1992-1994.

Ortiz took a break from coaching in 1995 before joining the New York Yankees organization the next year, serving as a roving instructor in 1996 and 1998 and a coach for the Single-A Greensboro Bats in 1997. The Tampa Bay Devil Rays hired him the ensuing season, assigning him to the Short Season Hudson Valley Renegades from 1999-2002 and the High-A Bakersfield Blaze from 2003-2004. The Los Angeles Dodgers then picked him up in 2005, placing him with the Single-A Vero Beach Dodgers in 2006 and the Rookie League GCL Dodgers in 2007.

In 2008, Ortiz returned to the Cardinals, staying in the Rookie League ranks with the GCL Cardinals. From there, he progressed through their organization, moving on to the Short Season Batavia Muckdogs in 2009, the Johnson City Cardinals from 2010-2012, the Short Season State College Spikes from 2013-2014, the High-A Palm Beach Cardinals in 2015, and the Double-A Springfield Cardinals in 2016.

KENT WILLIS

PITCHING COACH | 3RD SEASON | COLUMBUS, MS

63

Date of Birth: August 15, 1964

Coaching Experience: 15th Season

Last Team: Myrtle Beach Pelicans (ATL, A+)

College: University of Southern Mississippi

Kent Willis takes the reigns as the Pitching Coach for the Gary SouthShore RailCats, his first season with the team.

Willis, who hails from Columbus, Mississippi, heads to the South Shore following 15 seasons in the Atlanta Braves organization. Most recently, he served as the pitching coach for the High-A Myrtle Beach Pelicans in 2010.

A graduate of the University of Southern Mississippi, the Cincinnati Reds drafted Willis in the 12th round of the 1986 Major League Baseball Draft, going on to play four seasons professionally split between the Reds and Expos organizations.

Eight seasons after his retirement, the Braves hired Willis as their pitching coach for the Rookie League affiliates in the GCL Braves in 1996 and 1998 and the Danville Braves in 1997. He steadily rose through the organization, ascending to the Single-A Macon/Rome Braves from 1999-2004 and the Double-A Mississippi Braves from 2005-2006 before becoming the franchise's Minor League Pitching Coordinator from 2007-2009.

MATT BRUNSON

ASSISTANT COACH | 1ST SEASON | DENVER, CO

19

Date of Birth: September 2, 1974
Coaching Experience: 1st Season
Last Team: St. Paul Saints (AAPB)
College: University of Colorado

After joining the team for select games in August and September to aid their playoff push, Matt Brunson heads to The Steel Yard in a full-time role as an assistant coach in 2023. Though this season marks his professional coaching debut, Brunson is no stranger to the American Association. He makes his return to the league 16 years after taking the field during their second season of existence in 2007.

Originally from Denver, Colorado, the Detroit Tigers selected Brunson with the 9th overall pick in the 1993 Major League Baseball Draft out of Cherry Creek High School. He went on to spend three seasons in the minor leagues, splitting his time between the Tigers and Florida Marlins organizations.

Once his time in affiliated baseball came to a close, Brunson decided to go back to school and play wide receiver for the University of Colorado football team in 1998. As a senior in 2001, he caught 13 passes for 246 yards and three touchdowns as he helped the Buffaloes win the Big 12 Conference Championship and earn a bid to that year's Fiesta Bowl against Oregon State University.

Four years after his final college season, Brunson returned to the diamond and signed for the Yuma Scorpions at 30 years old ahead of the inaugural Golden Baseball League season in 2005. He suited up in 77 games during his lone year in Arizona and batted .284 with three home runs, 20 runs batted in, 71 hits, 67 runs scored, 32 stolen bases, and 67 walks to just 54 strikeouts.

Brunson went on to play for both the Newark Bears in the Atlantic League and the Brockton Rox in the Canadian-American Association in 2006. He made his first foray into American Association baseball in 2007 with the St. Paul Saints, where current RailCats manager Lamarr Rogers was his Hitting Coach.

COACHING STAFF

CHUCK SCHULTZ

CLUBHOUSE MANAGER | 6TH SEASON | DYER, IN

Back for his fifth season at The Steel Yard, Chuck Schultz is the Clubhouse Manager for the Gary SouthShore RailCats.

After spending 23 years as both a firefighter and paramedic, Schultz began his career in professional baseball as the Head Groundskeeper and Clubhouse Manager for the Joliet Slammers of the Frontier League in 2017. He joined the RailCats the very next season, and he has been with the team ever since. Additionally, he worked two offseasons in the California Winter League and one Spring Training in Florida. In 2020, when the RailCats did not participate in the American Association season due to COVID-19, Schultz served as the Clubhouse Manager for the Chicago Dogs.

Outside of work, Schultz is an avid golfer and fisherman, and he enjoys going to any baseball game he can find.

ADAM GIBSON

ATHLETIC TRAINER | 2ND SEASON | FAIRMOUNT, IN

Adam Gibson returns to the Gary SouthShore RailCats for his second season as the team's Athletic Trainer.

After completing his undergraduate degree at Manchester University, he went on to obtain a master's degree from Concordia University Chicago with a specialty in Applied Exercise Science.

Though this is his first season in professional sports, this is not Gibson's first job in athletics in general. He served as the Head Athletic Trainer for the Purdue University Fort Wayne softball team in 2018. Additionally, he has also worked at an orthopedic clinic and at various high schools in the Indianapolis area. When he isn't at work, Gibson enjoys painting, relaxing at his family's lake house, and finding new television shows to stream.

 @abbott_sammy_15

One of the most impactful in-season acquisitions in 2022, Sam Abbott heads back to the South Shore for his second year with the Gary SouthShore RailCats.

Abbott re-wrote team history during his first season at The Steel Yard. His 20 home runs broke Cristian Guerrero's 12-year-old single-season record of 19, making him the first-ever RailCat to reach the 20-home run milestone. Additionally, he also led the squad in slugging percentage (.525) while driving in 46 runs, 11 doubles, 22 walks, and 38 runs scored.

Originally committed to playing water polo at Long Beach State University, Abbott elected to sign with the Chicago White Sox out of Curtis High School in University Place, Washington after being selected in the 8th round of the 2017 Major League Baseball Draft. He went on to spend four seasons in their organization, appearing in 166 total games. He posted his best numbers as a member of the Great Falls Voyagers in the then-affiliated Pioneer League in 2019 as he registered nine home runs, 27 runs batted in, 13 doubles, a .355 on-base percentage, and a .459 slugging percentage.

A crucial mid-season pickup addition a year ago, LG Castillo returns to The Steel Yard for his second go-around in 2023.

After starting the 2022 season with the Washington Wild Things in the Frontier League, Castillo suited up in 47 games during the second half of the American Association season, slashing .318/.367/.516 with seven home runs, 37 runs batted in, 61 hits, 13 doubles, 31 runs scored, and three stolen bases.

The Milwaukee Brewers selected Castillo in the 17th round of the 2017 Major League Baseball Draft and immediately assigned him to their Arizona League affiliate upon his signing. From there, he worked his way up in the organization, earning a promotion nearly every season for the next three years. He was moved up to the Helena Brewers in the then-affiliated Pioneer League in 2018, split time with the Single-A Wisconsin Timber Rattlers and the High-A Carolina Mudcats in 2019, and returned to Wisconsin for the entirety of 2021 as the team reclassified to High-A.

His final year in affiliated baseball also proved to be his best as he hit .280 with nine home runs, 39 runs batted in, 68 hits, 13 doubles, 35 runs scored, and seven stolen bases.

Edward Cuello returns to the RailCats ahead of the 2023 season.

Pitching exclusively out of the starting rotation, he appeared 11 times, going 3-6 with 43 strikeouts in 46.1 innings.

The Los Angeles Dodgers signed the Dominican Republic Native Cuello at 18 years old as an international free agent in 2017 and immediately assigned him to their Dominican Summer League affiliate. In his first professional go-around, he mainly served as a starting pitcher and registered a 2-2 record, 2.40 earned run average, 23 strikeouts, and 1.044 WHIP in 13 appearances with eight starts over 45.0 innings.

Over the next three seasons, Cuello rapidly progressed through the Dodgers organization, going from the team's Arizona League affiliate to the Triple-A Oklahoma City Dodgers. He posted his best showing out of the bullpen across two levels in 2019, going 5-1 with a 2.56 ERA, 38 strikeouts, a 0.957 WHIP, and four saves in 20 relief appearances across 38.2 innings for the Rookie League Ogden Raptors and Single-A Great Lakes Loons.

Francisco Del Valle arrives on the South Shore for his first year as a RailCat. Though this season marks his American Association debut, he is no stranger to the MLB Partner Leagues, as he spent time in the Frontier League in 2022.

Originally from Ponce, Puerto Rico, the Los Angeles Angels drafted Del Valle in the 14th round of the 2016 Major League Baseball Draft. He found his stride early in his professional career as he batted .250 with five home runs, 33 runs batted in, 60 hits, 33 walks, 27 runs scored, 11 doubles, three triples, and five stolen bases in 65 games as a 19-year-old for the then-affiliated Orem Owlz of the Pioneer League in 2018. From there, he continued to climb through the organization, earning call-ups to the Single-A Burlington Bees in 2019 and the High-A Tri-City Dust Devils in 2021.

Del Valle began the 2022 season in High-A before signing for the New York Boulders in the Frontier League in early June. He proved to be a key cog in their lineup throughout their playoff push, hitting .299 and slugging seven home runs, 42 RBI, 73 hits, 19 doubles, 29 walks, 41 runs scored, and four stolen bases over a 64-game stretch. His efforts aided the Boulders to a second-place finish in the East Division and a place in the Wild Card Game.

Gio Díaz heads to the South Shore for his second season in the MLB Partner Leagues.

Before turning professional, Díaz played collegiately at St. Mary's College of California where he was a staple in their lineup during his three seasons. In 100 games, he batted .309 with 38 runs batted in, 94 hits, 16 doubles, 57 runs scored, and nine stolen bases. As a sophomore in 2019, he helped the Gaels to a 35-22 record and a berth in the West Coast Conference tournament.

At the conclusion of his college career, the Washington Nationals signed Díaz as a free agent in 2021, suiting up primarily for the Single-A Fredericksburg Nationals that season.

In 2022, Díaz got his first taste of MLB Partner League baseball as he signed for the Rocky Mountain Vibes of the Pioneer League. In 88 games, he set the competition alight as he slashed .394/.446/.463 with two home runs, 41 RBI, 16 doubles, 87 runs scored, 12 stolen bases, 32 walks, and 172 total bases. While his 148 established the franchise's new single-season record, he also ranked second in the Pioneer League in that statistic while also finishing sixth in batting average and 12th in on-base percentage.

College: Rockhurst University
Status: Rookie

Coming off his first full season as a pro, Eisenbarger heads back to the Steel Yard for his second year with the Gary South-Shore RailCats.

An American Association East Division All-Star selection in 2022, Eisenbarger emerged as the team's primary closer, logging 6 saves, registering a .225 batting average against and 88 strikeouts in 35 appearances (three starts) spanning 64.2 innings.

Eisenbarger spent five seasons at Division II Rockhurst University, where he dominated his competition as a senior in 2021. In 12 starts, he went 9-2 with a 3.14 earned run average, 102 strikeouts, 1.13 WHIP, seven complete games, and one shut-out in 77.1 innings pitched. His win and complete game totals topped the Great Lakes Valley Conference en route to an All-GLVC First Team and NCAA Division II Midwest All-Region Second Team selections. In addition to his individual accolades, Eisenbarger also led the Hawks to the GLVC Tournament.

Upon finishing his career at Rockhurst, Eisenbarger was invited to play in the first-year MLB Draft League for the Frederick Keys. He did not need much time to make a strong impression as he compiled a 3.38 ERA in eight innings, struck out 11 with no walks, and maintained a 0.75 WHIP. The RailCats signed him on the back of those strong outings, and Eisenbarger immediately made the jump to professional baseball.

In his first American Association experience, the left-hander impressed, going 1-1 with 24 strikeouts in his 25.1 innings split between the starting rotation and the bullpen.

Chris Erwin comes back to Gary for his third season with the RailCats in 2023, his fourth in professional baseball.

A starting rotation stalwart, Erwin registered a team-best 4.01 earned run average, a 3-5 record, 86 strikeouts, and 1 save in 20 appearances (18 starts) over 83.0 innings. While his strikeout and inning totals placed him third and fourth on the team respectively, his ERA ranked ninth in the American Association.

Prior to his professional career, Erwin elected to play collegiately at Kennesaw State University rather than sign with the Minnesota Twins, who drafted him in the 28th round of the 2013 Major League Baseball Draft. There, he made an impact right away and became a two-way standout. In 2014, he made the Atlantic Sun Conference All-Freshman Team and followed that up with a spot on the All-Conference Second Team the following year. He also earned the Louisville Slugger National Player of the Week Award on May 18, 2015, after tying the KSU single-game strikeout record (15). Erwin finished his senior season in 2017 by leading the conference with a .405 batting average and setting career highs in doubles (14), slugging percentage (.510), and on-base percentage (.441) while posting a 4.15 earned run average.

Erwin made his professional debut in 2019 with the Sussex County Miners, then of the Canadian American Association of Professional Baseball. Later that year, he was traded to the Florence Freedom of the Frontier League, where he helped spearhead a run to the league finals. As most professional leagues shut down in 2020 due to the COVID-19 pandemic, he made his way to the Baseball Brilliance of the one-season Yinzer Baseball Confederacy based in Washington, PA.

The RailCats signed Erwin ahead of the 2021 season where he split time between the rotation and bullpen. He posted a 3-5 record with a 3.09 ERA, 44 strikeouts, and one save over 52.1 innings. Of his 14 appearances, nine were starts, which tied for third on the pitching staff.

An American Association East Division All-Star in 2022, Francis led the team in strikeouts (95) and finished third in innings (95.0) while going 5-8 during his 20 appearances (18 starts).

The Arizona Diamondbacks took Francis in the 4th round of the 2017 Major League Baseball Draft from Lawton Chiles High School in Tallahassee, Florida, and they immediately assigned him to their Rookie League affiliate in the Arizona League. He went on to pitch four seasons in their system, most recently pitching for the Visalia Rawhide, their Low-A affiliate. Francis had his best success in 2018 split between the AZL Diamondbacks and short-season Hillsboro Hops. Across two levels, he went 8-0 with a 2.53 earned run average, 60 strikeouts, and a 1.313 WHIP over 53.1 innings and 14 appearances as both a starter and reliever.

Thomas Greely is back behind the plate as he makes a return trip to The Steel Yard in 2023. Having made his professional debut last year, this marks his first full season in professional baseball.

Greely began his collegiate career at San Joaquin Delta College, where he hit .314 with 48 runs batted in and 63 runs scored in 85 games, earning a Golden Glove as a freshman in 2017 and making the California Community College Athletic Association (CCCAA) All-Conference Team in both 2017 and 2018. In addition to his individual accolades, his efforts helped propel the Mustangs to the 2018 CCCAA State Championship.

Greely parlayed his junior college success into a transfer to Long Beach State University, and he seamlessly transitioned to the Division I level. Before the 2020 season was canceled due to COVID-19, he batted .333 (7-for-21) in 15 games, driving in two runs, compiling seven hits, and stealing one base. As a senior in 2021, he helped the Dirtbags to a 28-15 record and a third-place finish in the Big West Conference.

Before signing with the RailCats last July, Greely played semi-professionally for Templiers de Sénart in France's Division Élite.

Upon being acquired via trade, Matt Leon reports to the RailCats for his first American Association season in 2023.

Before turning pro, Leon attended Seton Hall where he almost exclusively pitched out of the bullpen. As a senior in 2018, his lone year as the team's primary closer, he re-wrote the program's record books. He led the Big East Conference and set the school single-season saves record (12) while also leading the conference in appearances (24), also striking out 34 batters and maintaining both a 1.17 earned run average and a 1.08 WHIP (walks and hits per innings pitched) over 30.2 innings. In addition to being selected to the All-Big East Conference First Team, he helped the Pirates to a 30-20-1 record and a spot in the Big East Tournament Finals.

The Los Angeles Angels signed Leon as an undrafted free agent following his graduation, and he nearly evenly split his time between the starting rotation and bullpen during his two years in their organization. His best showing came in 2019, a year in which he pitched for the then-affiliated Orem Owlz in the Pioneer League and the Single-A Burlington Bees. In Orem, he went 4-4 with a 3.64 ERA, 68 strikeouts, a 1.17 WHIP, and a 9.5 strikeouts-per-nine innings ratio during his 14 appearances (11 starts) over 64.1 innings.

Leon did not play in 2020 or 2021 before inking a deal with the New York Boulders of the Frontier League in 2022. Despite not throwing a competitive pitch in three years, he dominated his competition and established himself as one of the top closers in the league. He finished the year going 5-1 with five saves, posting a 1.80 ERA, 23 strikeouts, a 1.27 WHIP, and a 13.8 strikeouts-per-nine innings ratio in 20 appearances covering 15.0 innings, surrendering only three earned runs on 13 hits. His efforts helped the Boulders to second place in the East Division and a spot in the Wild Card Game.

On the heels of an excellent sophomore campaign, Daniel Lingua returns to the RailCats for the 2023 season.

During his second year on the South Shore in 2022, Lingua slashed .271/.351/.419 with six home runs, 48 runs batted in, 97 hits, 23 doubles, six triples, 42 walks, 57 runs scored, and 29 stolen bases in 96 games. In addition to representing the East Division at the 2022 American Association All-Star Game by winning the league's "Last Man In" Fan Vote, he also took home the league's Rookie Position Player of the Year Award.

Lingua attended Prairie View A&M University where he dominated his competition during his junior and senior seasons from 2018-19. Over those two years, he hit a combined .380 and registered two home runs, 71 RBI, 18 doubles, seven triples, 79 walks, and 51 stolen bases. As a senior, he led the Southwestern Athletic Conference in batting average and steals while placing second in hits and on-base percentage.

Though he signed for the RailCats with less than a week to go before the 2021 regular season, Lingua needed little time to acclimate himself to the American Association. He played a team-leading 89 games and batted .281 with three home runs, 42 runs batted in, 16 doubles, five triples, 37 runs, 45 walks, and 13 stolen bases. In addition to his offensive prowess, Lingua proved to be a valuable defensive asset as well, as he lined up at every position except pitcher or catcher and committed only three errors.

College: Pacific Lutheran University
Status: LS-1

A top arm in the American Association, Trevor Lubking makes his way back to Gary for his fourth season as a RailCat.

He emerged as the team's workhorse in 2021 as he posted a 5-9 record, 117 strikeouts, and two complete games over 19 appearances, 18 starts, and 117.0 innings pitched. His eight-inning, 12-strikeout performance against the Sioux Falls Canaries on June 25th won him that week's American Association Pitcher of the Week Award.

The Tampa Bay Rays selected Lubking in the 14th round of the 2014 Major League Baseball Draft out of Division III Pacific Lutheran University, where he dominated for four years. He immediately got assigned to the team's Appalachian League affiliate, the Princeton Rays, and put up excellent numbers. In 12 appearances, including 10 starts, he went 2-4 with a 3.51 ERA, 1.11 WHIP, and 43:10 strikeout-to-walk ratio. Lubking would one more season in affiliated baseball with the AZL Brewers in 2015 before elbow issues sidelined him for two years.

In 2018, Lubking made his return to professional baseball as a member of the Gateway Grizzlies in the Frontier League. He made seven appearances with the team before moving to the San Rafael Pacifics of the Pacific Association, and his impressive 1.96 ERA and 25 strikeouts in 12 bullpen appearances led him to sign with the Lincoln Saltdogs, where he received his first taste of American Association baseball.

Though the Saltdogs dealt him to the Sussex County Miners, then in the Can-Am League, that offseason, the RailCats traded for Lubking and brought him to The Steel Yard ahead of the 2019 season. In his first experience as a starter since 2014, he flourished in the new role as he threw 139 innings over 24 starts and posted a 4.53 ERA, and 108 strikeouts.

Full Name: Jesus Adalberto Marriaga
Date of Birth: December 17, 1998 (24)
Hometown: Cartagena, COL
Current Residence: Cartagena, COL
Professional Experience: 6th Season
Last Team: Hillsboro Hops (ARI, A-)
Status: LS-3

Back for another year on the South Shore, Jesus Marriaga heads back to Gary for his third season with the RailCats in 2023.

An imposing, five-tool presence, he led the ballclub in runs batted in (61) while slashing .307/.379/.494 and compiling 86 hits, six home runs (including one inside-the-park home run), 19 doubles, 29 walks, 54 runs scored, and 21 stolen bases in 71 games.

A native of Cartagena, Colombia, Marriaga signed with the Arizona Diamondbacks as an international free agent in 2016 and got assigned to their Dominican Summer League team. He made a good impression in his first professional season as he racked up 70 hits, 23 runs batted in, 10 doubles, 32 bases on balls, and 25 stolen bases while hitting .299 in 64 games. Over the next three seasons, Marriaga progressed through their farm system and earned a promotion each season. He started in the United States with the AZL Diamondbacks in 2017, moved to the Missoula Osprey of the Pioneer League in 2018, and played for the then short-season Hillsboro Hops in 2019. His .244 batting average, 27 RBI, 14 doubles, 45 walks, and 17 stolen bases helped him become a Northwest League All-Star in Hillsboro.

Upon arriving at The Steel Yard in 2021, Marriaga appeared in 80 games, good for second on the team. His 19 stolen bases led the squad while his 83 hits and .283 batting average placed second and third respectively. He also hit two home runs, drove in 31 runs, scored 35 runs, and drew 22 walks.

Last March, along with pitcher Julio Vivas, Marriaga represented Colombia in the 2023 World Baseball Classic, appearing in three games during pool play. In their matchup against the United States on March 15, he drew a walk against Arizona Diamondbacks starting pitcher Merrill Kelly and made diving catches in left field to deny Los Angeles Dodgers star outfielder Mookie Betts and Philadelphia Phillies shortstop Trea Turner of base hits.

Date of Birth: May 2, 1995 (28)
Hometown: Cartagena, COL
Current Residence: Cartagena, COL
Professional Experience: 10th Season
Last Team: Aigles de Trois-Rivières (Frontier)
Status: Veteran

A veteran presence behind the plate, Carlos Martínez joins the RailCats for his first season on the South Shore in 2023.

Though new to the American Association, this is not his first experience in MLB Partner League baseball, as he spent last season in the Frontier League.

The Atlanta Braves initially signed the Cartagena, Colombia native Martínez as an international free agent in 2012 and placed him with their Dominican Summer League affiliate the next year to begin his professional career. After making his way stateside to the Gulf Coast League in 2014, he steadily progressed through the organization, earning at least one promotion in all but one season from 2015-2021, ultimately reaching the Triple-A Gwinnett Stripers in 2021.

Martínez joined the Aigles de Trois-Rivières in 2022 and immediately became one of the Frontier League's best backstops. His .336 batting average ranked him seventh in the league, a .595 slugging percentage placed him 10th, and his .415 on-base percentage put him in 12th. To accompany his remarkable slash line, Martínez registered 16 home runs, 62 runs batted in, 83 hits, 16 doubles, 30 walks to only 29 strikeouts, 55 runs scored, and 147 total bases. As a result of his efforts, he earned the start at catcher for the East Division during the 2022 Frontier League All-Star Game.

Professional Experience: 3rd Season

Last Team: Lake Elsinore Storm (SDP, A)

College: San Joaquin Delta College

Status: LS-1

Ben Miller makes his way to the South Shore for his first season as a RailCat.

Before turning pro, Miller pitched collegiately at San Joaquin Delta College. Though he only appeared in 10 total games across his two years there due to the COVID-19 pandemic in 2020 and the cancellation of the California Community College Athletic Association season in 2021, he dazzled in limited action. Across 21.2 innings as a freshman, he sported a 3-1 record with a 1.25 ERA, 20 strikeouts, an 8.31 strikeouts-per-nine innings ratio, and one save, allowing just three total runs.

Upon his graduation, after a brief stint with the Niagara Power in the Perfect Game Collegiate Baseball League, the San Diego Padres signed Miller to a free agent contract. He was immediately assigned to their Rookie League affiliate in the Arizona Complex League, where he tossed 9.0 innings in eight appearances, notching one save.

The Padres promoted Miller to the Single-A Lake Elsinore Storm for his first full professional season in 2022, and he emerged as a stalwart at the back end of the bullpen. He led the team in both appearances (38) and saves (7) while registering a 3.58 earned run average and striking out 45 batters in 55.1 innings. His save and appearance totals also ranked him tied for fourth and tied for eighth respectively in the California League.

After joining the RailCats in June a season ago, Victor Nova heads back to The Steel Yard in 2023.

Nova provided a spark in the middle of the Gary SouthShore order during his first American Association season, batting .270 with eight home runs, 39 runs batted in, 53 hits, 10 doubles, 26 walks, 39 runs scored, and seven stolen bases in 51 contests.

A native of Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic, the San Diego Padres signed Nova as an international free agent and placed him on their Dominican Summer League affiliate in 2018. However, one year later, he was dealt alongside Franmil Reyes and Logan Allen to the Cleveland Indians (now Guardians) in a three-team trade that sent Trevor Bauer to the Cincinnati Reds, Yasiel Puig to the Indians, and Taylor Trammell to the Padres.

Following the COVID-19 pandemic, Nova worked his way up to the High-A Lake County Captains in 2021, earning a promotion to the Double-A Akron RubberDucks by season's end. He split the first half of the 2022 campaign as a member of the RubberDucks and Triple-A Columbus Clippers before signing with the RailCats.

Oddy Nuñez finds himself at The Steel Yard for his first season with the Gary SouthShore RailCats.

Nuñez, 26, heads to the South Shore after six years in the Pittsburgh Pirates organization. A native of Santiago, Dominican Republic, he signed as an international free agent, and he began his career as an 18-year-old in 2015. It did not take him long to get the organization's attention, as he pitched to a 2.28 earned run average in 55.1 innings across 22 appearances during his first two seasons, striking out 47 batters while walking just 17 and maintaining a WHIP of 1.139 with the team's Rookie League affiliates in the Dominican Summer League and Gulf Coast League.

Coming off that two-year stretch, Nuñez began to ascend through the organization. He earned a promotion to the Single-A West Virginia Power in 2017 followed by call-ups to the High-A Bradenton Marauders in 2018 and the Double-A Altoona Curve in 2021, splitting time between the starting rotation and the bullpen along the way.

In 2022, Nuñez got his first taste of MLB Partner League baseball, spending the entire season in the Frontier League with the Tri-City ValleyCats.

A longtime minor league veteran, Dorssys Paulino embarks upon his first season in the MLB Partner Leagues with the Gary SouthShore RailCats in 2023.

A citizen of Bani, Dominican Republic, Paulino signed an international free agent deal with the Cleveland Indians (now Guardians), and they immediately sent him to the United States to play for their Arizona League affiliate to start his career in 2012 at 17 years old. He immediately caught the eye of the organization that year, split between Rookie League and the short-season Mahoning Valley Scrappers as he batted .333, slugged seven home runs, drove in 38 runs, legged 19 doubles, and stole 11 bases.

Over the next six seasons, Paulino climbed his way through the Indians' farm system, impressing at every level. From 2013-17, he registered at least a .250 batting average at every level in which he played, leading to a call-up to the Triple-A Columbus Clippers in 2018.

Once his time with the Indians came to an end, Paulino did not play from 2019-22, as the 2023 campaign marks his return to baseball in the United States.

College: St. Bonaventure University

Status: LS-3

Coming off of his first full season on the South Shore, Aaron Phillips returns to the RailCats in 2023.

The team's appearance leader last year with 36 (one start), he compiled a 3-3 record, 4.14 earned run average, 51 strikeouts, and 3 saves over 63.0 innings pitched.

Phillips attended St. Bonaventure University where he featured as a pitcher, first baseman, and outfielder during his three years there. While he was a constant fixture in the batting order, he truly shined as a pitcher, as he became a force in the starting rotation. As a junior in 2017, he went 9-2 with a 3.04 earned run average, 90 strikeouts, an 8.0 strikeouts-per-nine innings ratio, and 1.212 WHIP in 100.2 innings that included 14 starts and one relief appearance. Phillips' performance earned the Atlantic 10 Conference Pitcher of the Year Award and ABCA/Rawlings All-American Third Team selection while he was also named a finalist for the John Olerud Two-Way Player of the Year Award.

Immediately following that impressive junior season, the San Francisco Giants took Phillips in the 9th round of the 2017 Major League Baseball Draft, making him the highest-ever draft pick in St. Bonaventure history. In his first full season as a pro with the Single-A Augusta GreenJackets, he continued his run of good form, going 6-7 and posting a 3.72 ERA, 120 strikeouts to just 16 walks, and a 1.082 WHIP in 18 starts and one relief outing. Phillips progressed to the Giants Triple-A affiliate, the Sacramento River Cats, just one year later.

Phillips signed with the RailCats late in 2021, making an immediate impact out of the rotation. He put together two excellent starts in August and September, allowing just two runs while striking out seven in his 14 innings of work along with an 8.2-inning scoreless streak to begin his American Association career.

Status: Rookie

An MLB Partner League Veteran, Jared Price comes back to the RailCats for his second season in 2023. Joining from the Grand Junction Rockies in the Pioneer League, Price made just nine appearances in his debut season at The Steel Yard, striking out 11 batters and picking up one save in 7.1 innings.

Price pitched collegiately at Division II Oklahoma Christian University, splitting time between the starting rotation and the bullpen as a freshman and sophomore before ultimately moving to the back end of the bullpen as a junior. He posted his best numbers from the closer role as a senior in 2019, going 2-3 with a 3.52 earned run average, 25 strikeouts, and eight saves in 22 appearances spanning 23 innings. However, his biggest team successes came as an underclassman as the Eagles reached the National Christian College Athletic Association (NCCAA) World Series in 2015 as well as the Heartland Conference Championship in 2016.

Price began his professional career shortly after his graduation, signing with the Birmingham-Bloomfield Beavers in the United Shore Professional Baseball League (USPBL) in 2019. Over his two years as a Beaver, he posted a 3.52 ERA, fanning 53 batters in 56.2 innings, helping the Beavers reach the USPBL Championship Game in 2020.

Following that productive two-year stretch, Price signed with the Boise Hawks in the Pioneer League, where he spent the entire 2021 season. He moved on to play for the Grand Junction Rockies the following year before heading to Gary in July.

An end-of-the-year signing in 2022, Reyson Santos ventures back to the South Shore in 2023.

Santos appeared nine times out of the bullpen after joining the team in August a year ago, and he quickly became a reliable option at the end of games. He compiled a 3.24 earned run average and struck out seven batters while allowing just three runs on seven hits during his 8.1 innings of work.

The New York Mets originally signed Santos as an international free agent and started his professional career with their Dominican Summer League affiliate as a 19-year-old in 2018. He made his way stateside the following year, pitching for both the Kingsport Mets of the then-affiliated Appalachian League and the Low-A Brooklyn Cyclones.

Following the COVID-19 pandemic, Santos split the 2021 and 2022 seasons between the Single-A St. Lucie Mets and the newly reclassified Cyclones in High-A before signing in Gary.

Professional Experience: 2nd Season

Last Team: Long Beach State University

College: Long Beach State University

Status: LS-1

Fresh off his first full professional season, John Sheaks returns to The Steel Yard in 2023.

A mainstay in the starting rotation, Sheaks went 5-8 with a 4.64 earned run average and 74 strikeouts in his 18 starts across 99.0 innings. While his innings total placed him second on the team, he tied for second in starts, third in ERA, and fifth in strikeouts. His 30 walks were also the fewest amongst Gary SouthShore's qualifying pitchers.

Sheaks attended Saddleback College in Mission Viejo, California, where he earned All-Orange Empire Conference Second Team honors while leading the Gauchos to a Conference Tournament championship as a sophomore in 2016. Upon the conclusion of his junior college career, he parlayed that success into a transfer to Long Beach State University for his final two seasons. Over his three seasons in Long Beach, Sheaks compiled a 10-5 record along with 71 strikeouts in 124.1 innings split between the starting rotation and the bullpen. Additionally, he helped the Dirtbags take home the Big West Regular Season Championship and reach the NCAA Division I Super Regionals in 2017.

Sheaks would end up signing with the RailCats midway through the 2021 season, and he was immediately thrust into the starting rotation. He made nine starts in his American Association debut season, fanning 38 batters in 40 innings during that span.

An experienced professional, Emmanuel Tapia kicks off his debut season at The Steel Yard in 2023.

The Cleveland Indians (now Guardians) originally signed Tapia, who hails from Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic, as an international free agent and assigned him to their Dominican Summer League affiliate to begin his career at age 17 in 2013. It did not take him long to make a strong impression within the organization as he earned a promotion to the Arizona Complex League the following year along with a promotion nearly every year until 2018 that saw him ascend to the High-A Lynchburg Hillcats. In his 2017 season as a member of the Single-A Lake County Captains, he displayed his raw power, clubbing a Midwest League-leading 29 home runs, 71 runs batted in, 98 hits, 20 doubles, 53 runs scored, 35 walks, and 205 total bases over 124 games.

At the conclusion of his time in the Indians organization, Tapia took a two-year hiatus from the sport before heading to the Atlantic League to play for the expansion Gastonia Honey Hunters in 2021. In his two seasons in North Carolina, he became one of the league's most consistent hitters, batting .275 with 32 home runs, 125 RBI, 144 hits, 28 doubles, 69 walks, seven stolen bases, a .370 on-base percentage, and a .521 slugging percentage. In his second year, Tapia propelled the Honey Hunters to an 88-44 record, clinching a South Division championship in just their second-ever season.

On the heels of an excellent first year on the South Shore, Julio Vivas heads back to the Gary SouthShore RailCats in 2023.

One of the most trusted arms in the RailCats bullpen after signing midway through the 2022 season, Vivas assumed the team's stopper role. He took the mound 18 times, finishing the campaign with a 3.27 earned run average and 19 strikeouts while allowing only eight earned runs in 22.0 innings.

The Pittsburgh Pirates signed Vivas in 2011 at just 17 years old, and the Venezuela native spent his first three professional seasons pitching for the team's international affiliates in the Venezuelan and Dominican Summer Leagues. He arrived in the United States as a 20-year-old in 2014 and progressed to the High-A Bradenton Marauders in 2016.

Vivas found his way to the Normal CornBelters, then in the Frontier League, in 2017, and they gave him the opportunity to be a full-time starter for the first time since 2013. He posted a 3.58 earned run average, a 5-4 record, 69 strikeouts, two complete games, and one shutout in 14 starts across 88.0 innings. Following the season, he did not pitch in the United States for four years, electing instead to participate in the Venezuelan Winter League and Caribbean Series instead.

Five years after his first taste of the Frontier League, the Lake Erie Crushers brought him back during the first half of 2022. He pitched 12 times in Northeast Ohio, fanning 56 batters in 64.0 innings before he was acquired by the RailCats to complete a previous trade.

Last March, he joined forces with Jesus Marriaga and represented Colombia during the 2023 World Baseball Classic. He appeared three times during pool play and allowed just one run without surrendering a hit. In the team's final game against the United States on March 15th, he tossed a perfect ninth inning in which he struck out Baltimore Orioles All-Star center fielder Cedric Mullins while also retiring New York Mets first baseman Pete Alonso and Chicago White Sox shortstop Tim Anderson.

DJ Wilkinson makes his professional debut in 2023 as he joins the Gary SouthShore RailCats.

Most recently, Wilkinson impressed in the MLB Draft League in 2022. As a member of the Trenton Thunder, he took the mound in 19 games, all from the bullpen, going 1-1 with a 2.70 earned run average, 22 strikeouts, a 1.35 WHIP (walks and hits per innings pitched), a 9.9 strikeouts-per-nine innings ratio, and one save in 20 innings.

A native of Monticello, Florida, Wilkinson began his college career at Pensacola State College. He dominated over his two seasons as a Pirate, accumulating an 11-4 record, including an 8-2 freshman campaign that saw him fan 73 batters in 67.1 innings en route to two Panhandle Conference Player of the Week awards and a spot on the All-Panhandle Conference Second Team in 2018.

Following that two-year stretch, Wilkinson transferred to Troy University, primarily throwing out of the bullpen. He pitched just 9.1 innings over seven appearances with one start in 2020 due to the COVID-19 pandemic before appearing in 12 games (three starts) in 2021, striking out 30 hitters. He joined Florida A&M University as a graduate transfer in 2022 where he transitioned back to the rotation, starting 15 games in his final college season. He went 5-6, racking up 83 strikeouts and a 10.0 strikeouts-per-nine innings ratio during his 74.1 innings of work.

Status: LS-2

Michael Woodworth returns to the RailCats after a successful 2022 season.

In his team-leading 99 games, Woodworth paced the club with 118 hits, becoming the first RailCat to reach the 100-hit landmark since 2014. Additionally, he finished second on the team with a .297 batting average along with five home runs, 43 runs batted in, 18 doubles, 75 runs scored, and 23 stolen bases. His eight triples led the American Association as well.

In his 31 games in 2021, he batted a team-high .367, including a .317 average with two strikes, while registering 44 hits, two home runs, 17 runs batted in, 22 runs scored, and eight stolen bases. His .517 slugging percentage and .429 on-base percentage also ranked first and second on the team respectively.

Before arriving in the American Association, Woodworth played collegiately at the University of Connecticut for two seasons. After spending his freshman and sophomore years at Sierra College in Rocklin, Calif., he made an immediate impact upon his arrival in Storrs. He led the Huskies to consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances and received ABCA/Rawlings NCAA Division I All-Region, All-New England, and All-American Athletic Conference Second Team honors as a senior.

The Oakland Athletics selected Woodworth in the 29th round of the 2019 Major League Baseball Draft, and he recorded 51 hits, two home runs, 27 runs batted in, and 28 bases on balls in his first taste of professional baseball across three levels.

Woodworth became a RailCat in 2021, playing in 31 games in his first season. He batted a team-high .367, including a .317 average with two strikes, while registering 44 hits, two home runs, 17 runs batted in, 22 runs scored, and eight stolen bases. His .517 slugging percentage and .429 on-base percentage also ranked first and second on the team respectively.

LEAGUE HISTORY

AMERICAN ASSOCIATION HISTORY

The American Association is one of the great names in the history of professional baseball leagues in the United States. The first American Association was formed in 1902 as an independent minor league for the larger cities in the midwestern area of the U.S. The original members of the league were the St. Paul Apostles, the Minneapolis Millers, the Kansas City Cowboys, the Toledo Mud Hens, the Indianapolis Indians, the Louisville Colonels, the Milwaukee Brewers, and the Columbus (OH) Senators. The following year (1903), the American Association joined the National Association of Professional Baseball Leagues (the minor league organization), and for the next half century the league was arguably the most influential minor league in all of baseball. Great players such as Ted Williams, Mickey Mantle, Willie Mays and more starred in league ballparks, and the Junior World Series was a major event in the U.S. sporting world. In 1944 more than 50,000 fans showed up for a crucial JWS game between Louisville and Baltimore.

In 1953 major league baseball saw the first movement of franchises since the turn of the century as the Boston Braves moved to Milwaukee. Over the next decade the American Association would also lose Kansas City, Minneapolis, and St. Paul to major league baseball. At the same time, minor league baseball was undergoing a serious decline. In earlier years, minor league teams could exist without a major league working agreement, but the economics of minor league baseball had changed. It was now imperative to have a major league agreement for a team's survival, but the major leagues were streamlining their list of affiliates. The advent of television, air conditioning, and the suburbs were also a factor in the decline of the minors, and in 1963, the American Association would close its doors.

The surviving teams were absorbed by the Pacific Coast League and the International League, the remaining AAA leagues. In 1969 the American Association returned as the expansion of major league baseball created a need for more Class AAA farm clubs. The original six members of the returning Association were the Indianapolis Indians, the Omaha Royals, the Tulsa Oilers, the Denver Bears, the Iowa Oaks, and the Oklahoma City 89ers. The following year the league would go to eight clubs with the addition of Wichita and Evansville. The league remained fairly stable until 1997 when minor league baseball decided to realign and the American Association was again dropped. As in the prior demise of the league, teams would be absorbed by the other two AAA leagues.

The Iowa Oaks circa 1973

In the fall of 2005 the possibility of a revival of the American Association was discussed. Teams from two independent leagues, the Northern League and the Central League proposed coming together to form a “super” independent league. Two of the cities in the discussions, St. Paul and Ft. Worth, had been members of the old American Association, and the geography was similar to that of the original league. With the history and precedent set by its namesake, the American Association of Independent Professional Baseball Leagues was formed on October 11, 2005. The expectations were strong for the new league, and the name “American Association” was again part of the great history of professional baseball. In 2008, Wichita rejoined the league as an expansion team along with Grand Prairie, TX. In 2011 Amarillo replaced Pensacola and the league expanded by four teams, adding the Fargo-Moorhead RedHawks, Gary SouthShore RailCats, Kansas City T-Bones and Winnipeg Goldeyes.

The league expanded to suburban Chicago in 2018 with the addition of the Chicago Dogs, whose home stadium is Impact Field, a new $60 million facility in Rosemont, IL. In 2019, the American Association expanded again, this time to Franklin, WI as the Milwaukee Milkmen joined the circuit. The club opened the newly constructed $25M Franklin Field, which is part of the Ballpark Commons development in Franklin.

The American Association expanded its footprint in Texas in 2017 with the addition of the Cleburne Railroaders. The Railroaders play at The Depot, a $20.7M stadium in Cleburne. In 2022, the American Association of Professional Baseball will be playing with 12 teams, one of them being an expansion team: The Lake Country DockHounds.

ROSTER RULES

The roster limit for an American Association club is 25 players, with a minimum of 20. An additional two players may be on the disabled list during the regular season. Of those 25 players, a maximum of six may be Veterans and minimum of five must be Rookie or LS-1 classification. Teams carrying 22 players must have a minimum of four Rookies/LS-1 players. Teams carrying 21 or fewer players must have a minimum of three rookie/LS-1 players. The remaining players will be designated as limited service (LS) players.

During the pre-season, a maximum of 30 players may be under contract at any one time without regard to classification. The regular season active player roster limit must be met two days before the start of the regular season at 11:59 p.m. CT.

Year of Service: A year of service for American Association players is 75 official at bats or more in a MLB PBL league or Independent League or Leagues, or 30 innings or more pitched in a MLB PBL league or Independent League or Leagues, in any season prior to the present calendar year. For Independent or Short Season/Rookie league service, the first two years of service equals one MLB PBL league year. For foreign players, the classification and salary level will be determined by the Deputy Commissioner.

Rookie: A player with less than one year of service.

LS-1: A player with less than two years of service.

LS-2: A player with less than three years of service.

LS-3: A player with less than four years of service.

LS-4: A player with less than five years of service. Two of the six LS-4 players may be an LS-5.

LS-5: A player with less than six years of service.

Veteran: A player with six or more years of service.

If a player has six or more years of service but has not reached the age of 27 prior to September 1 of that season, he will be considered an LS-4. If he has not reached the age of 25 prior to September 1 of that season, he will be considered an LS-3.

JOSHUA SCHAUB

COMMISSIONER

Joshua Schaub was appointed Commissioner of the American Association of Professional Baseball on March 1, 2019. He succeeds league founder Miles Wolff, who retired at the end of 2018 after 13 seasons as Commissioner. Schaub is the chief executive for the American Association and oversees the American Association's operations, media, expansion, revenue opportunities, technology enhancements and emergence, public relations, and relationships in professional baseball.

Schaub's baseball background is extensive. He is the former CEO and co-owner of the Joliet Slammers baseball club of the Frontier League, a board member of the Frontier League and Prospect League, and has previously worked in the Milwaukee Brewers scouting department as an intern and associate scout. Schaub also previously clerked in the Northern League. Additionally, Schaub has served as a consultant and legal counsel to numerous professional baseball teams for both business, legal, and baseball matters.

Schaub is formerly an attorney with Gutwein Law based in Minneapolis, where he led the Sports and Entertainment Law practice of the firm. While in practice, Schaub represented numerous professional and amateur leagues and outside general counsel. He also formerly served as the Commissioner and General Counsel of the Major Arena Soccer League and is a co-founder of Da Beauty League, a summer hockey league for NHL, AHL, ECHL, and college players based in the Twin Cities, which has donated over $250,000 to charity in its first five years of existence. He serves as an adjunct law school professor at the University of Wisconsin Law School teaching Sports Law and regularly lectures for "Baseball and the Law" at Mitchell Hamline School of Law. Schaub is currently a mentor for TechStars Sports Tech accelerator, is a former Twin Cities (Minnesota) board member for the American Cancer Society, and is formerly the Vice-Chair of the Sport, Art, and Entertainment section of the Minnesota Bar. Schaub has further served as a guest on numerous podcasts focused on sports business.

After acquiring an undergraduate degree at the University of Wisconsin-La Crosse in Exercise and Sports Science with an emphasis in Sports Management. Schaub earned his Juris Doctor from the William Mitchell College of Law in St. Paul, Minnesota (now Mitchell Hamline). While at William Mitchell, he was the chair of the Sports and Entertainment Law Society. Schaub has been named top 40 business leaders under 40 by the Minneapolis/St. Paul Business Journal and Baseball Executive of the Year by the Pitch and Hit Club of Chicago.

JOSH BUCHHOLZ

DEPUTY COMMISSIONER

Josh Buchholz was named Deputy Commissioner of the American Association on January 18, 2018.

Prior to taking the role with the American Association, Buchholz had been the Vice President and General Manager of the Fargo-Moorhead RedHawks since October 2005. While with the RedHawks, Buchholz was a part of five Northern League championships (1998, 2003, 2006, 2009, 2010), earned Executive of the Year honors three times (2008, 2010, 2012), and in 2013 was named to the Prairie Business Magazine's "Top 40 Under 40" business leaders in North Dakota, South Dakota, and northwest Minnesota.

Buchholz served as the club's Director of Media Relations and Director of Baseball Operations before being named the fourth General Manager in franchise history. He joined the RedHawks organization in 1996 as Clubhouse Manager and was promoted to the front office following the 1997 season.

Buchholz graduated from Concordia College in Moorhead, Minnesota with a Bachelor of Arts in History.

JAKE KRANZ

DIRECTOR OF DIGITAL MEDIA

Jake Kranz was named the Director of Digital Media for the American Association on November 2, 2020.

A native of North St. Paul, Minnesota, he graduated from the Carlson School of Management at the University of Minnesota with a degree in Entrepreneurial Management.

He is the Co-Founder of Uncle Charlie Marketing Co., a full-service marketing agency he founded while in college at the University of Minnesota.

RON TEAGUE

DIRECTOR OF UMPIRES

Ron Teague was named the Director of Umpires on October 1, 2018.

Prior to being named the Director of Umpires, Teague was a professional baseball umpire from 2006-2018. From 2006-2010, he was an umpire in the American Association, being selected to four postseason assignments, including three championships. After his four years in the American Association, in 2010, he attended Jim Evans Academy of Professional Umpiring where he was an honor graduate and eventually earned a contract in the Arizona Rookie League.

From 2010-2018, Teague worked in the Arizona League, Arizona Extended Spring, Appalachian League, Midwest League, Florida Instructional League, California League, Texas League, Arizona Instructional League, Dominican Winter League, Pacific Coast League, and 2017 MLB Spring Training. Teague was invited back to MLB Spring Training in 2018 before he resigned from affiliated baseball and re-joined the American Association for a final season on the field. In 2018, he was an American Association crew chief for the regular season and the entire postseason.

Teague's accolades while in affiliated baseball include the Appalachian League Championship Series, Midwest League All-Star Game, and California League Umpire of the Year along with an All-Star Game and postseason assignment. He also was chosen to work the Texas League All-Star Game, MLB Futures Game, and MLB Home Run Derby in 2015 in Cincinnati, Ohio, Dominican Winter League postseason and Championship, and the Pacific Coast League Championship.

Teague was also the Chief Instructor at the Minor League Baseball Umpire Academy in Vero Beach, Florida in 2016 and 2017 and was an instructor from 2013-2015. In addition to his professional experience, Teague is also an NCAA Division I umpire in several conferences, including the SEC.

RAILCATS BY THE NUMBERS

979

The RailCats are quickly closing in on 1,000 total wins in their 20-year history. Ahead of the 2022 season, the RailCats have 979 wins in the Northern League and American Association.

38

Since their inception, the RailCats have transferred the contracts of 38 players to Major League Baseball organizations.

19

The RailCats have had 19 former Major League Baseball players on their roster throughout their history. Of those 19, two, Tim Byrdak and Nathan Haynes, made it to MLB after suiting up at the U.S. Steel Yard.

21

Due to not playing in 2020 due to the COVID-19 pandemic, 2022 marks the 21st season of Gary SouthShore RailCats baseball.

4

Over their 20-year history, the RailCats have employed only 4 managers: Joe Calfapietra, Garry Templeton, Greg Tagert, and Lamarr Rogers.

13

The RailCats have secured 13 individual end-of-season awards. Willie Glen and Greg Tagert are the only repeat winners, capturing Pitcher of the Year and Manager of the Year awards twice and three times respectively.

12

Having joined the league in 2011, the RailCats enter their 12th season as members of the American Association of Professional Baseball.

66

Across both leagues, 66 RailCats have been selected to various All-Star Teams (12 postseason, 54 midseason). Willie Glen is the only multi-time postseason All-Star, but Jay Pecci holds the team record for most midseason All-Star appearances (four).

2

The RailCats captured 2 Northern League Championships in 2005 and 2007, defeating the Fargo-Moorhead Redhawks and Calgary Vipers in the process.

1

The RailCats defeated the Wichita Wingnuts to take home the 2013 American Association Championship, their first since joining the league.

Tim Byrdak, pictured with the Houston Astros, played for the RailCats in 2003 and made it back to the big leagues two years later with the Baltimore Orioles.
